Issue Number 121

When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding joy. - Matthew 2:10

CELEBRATE THE NIGHT THE WORLD CHANGED

Dear Friends,

Although the leaves are gone and the weather is turning cold, our hearts are warmed with the thoughts of sharing this special time of year with all of you, our friends. We look forward to celebrating this holy season and embracing all the joy that surrounds the holidays.

As Christmas nears, please think of Angels' Place. A treasured member of the Angels' Place community, I know that you are also aware that our parents and children are not so privileged, and there is an opportunity to share a gift that will help change their world.

While struggling through many challenges, our families are hard at work finishing the fall term, one step closer to fulfilling their dreams. As you shop for gifts, prepare for gatherings with loved ones, and reflect on your blessings please consider a monetary gift to support the work of Angels' Place as we serve those in need.

Angels' Place is committed to the mission of ensuring parents and children receive a quality education, along with the necessary support to strengthen the family. These families have nowhere else to turn for help.

We are inviting you to be our star and shine. By believing in the potential of our parents and children you allow them to shine. GIVE A GIFT THAT YOU ARE PASSIONATE ABOUT; GIVE A GIFT THAT MATTERS AND ONE THAT MAKES A DIFFERENCE. When a family enters our program we immediately assume the responsibility of raising 100% of the funds needed to provide services, and we depend on charitable donations in order to be able to continue our program. That is why we ask you to remember Angels' Place with a gift in support of our important work during the holidays.

Angels' Place remains committed to its mission. Can I count on you to further the vision for a brighter future for two generations? Every gift matters. Please, won't you decide to make a difference today?

On behalf of our organization and families, I thank you for your kind consideration and support. May God bless you and your family abundantly during this blessed Christmas season and throughout the New Year.

With gratitude,

Beth E. Banas

WINTER 2015 PROGRAM UPDATES

Each center held their annual Grandparents Luncheon in October and November with many extended family members and friends in attendance to celebrate all who play an instrumental role in supporting our parents and children. Similarly, Thanksgiving Dinner was enjoyed by families and staff at each center. All were invited to participate in our tradition of sharing things for which we are thankful.

All staff attended our quarterly organizational In-service at the North Side in September which featured an informative presentation on Trauma Informed Care by Dr. Judy Cohen, Professor of Psychiatry from Allegheny Health Network, and Faith O'Shea, Intake Coordinator. Three staff members were fortunate to attend the Homeless Education Network Summit VI sponsored by the Homeless Children's Education Fund.

Jeremiah's Place attended parenting classes and led a joint activity with children and parents in which they listened to the Pete the Cat: I Love my White Shoes audiobook. They gifted each of our families with a book to take home, led a shoe lacing activity and provided a healthy snack. Diane Edmonds, PNC Branch Manager, Edgewood Towne Centre, gave an engaging presentation on financial literacy to parents at each center.

CHILDREN'S ACTIVITIES

All Pre-K children had the opportunity to travel to Heinz Hall for the Tiny Tots Symphony where they heard a musical telling of Eve Titus' beloved children's book, Anatole. Extra special thanks to Ed and Megan Grefenstette for connecting us with the Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra, who allowed our children to meet the musicians and learn about their instruments.

Melissa from the Pittsburgh School for the Choral Arts, a community leader in music education, has begun a weekly music lesson at each center. Children play instruments and are engaged in singing, dancing and clapping, all of which is meant to encourage movement, cooperation, expression and music appreciation.

On September 21 Angels' Place took part in the International Day of Peace, which is observed around the world as a day devoted to strengthening the ideals of peace, both within and among all nations and peoples. At our Swissvale Center we had staff, children, parents and volunteers sign a peace proclamation and deliver it to the Swissvale Police Station as our pledge to promote peace in our community. We continued our annual tradition of having the entire Swissvale family decorate pinwheels to display on the lawn. Our North Side Pre-K friends talked about peace and how they can be a peaceful person and show kindness to others. The children made pinwheels and danced with them outside. Brookline friends worked together to create a Peace wreath to hang on the front door, read a story about friends and sang, "I've Got Peace Like a River" on the stage, while wearing their tie dye shirts.

Brookline friends went on a Halloween Field Trip to the Brookdale Senior Living Center. They paraded through the neighborhood in costumes, trick-or-treated in the main room of the Senior Center and performed "Way Up High in the Apple Tree" and "Five Little Pumpkins" for the residents.

Children's lesson plans included sensory exploration through different fall activities planned by the teachers. Many activities were planned incorporating leaves, spiders, pumpkins, apples, acorns, squash, turkeys and corn. Pre-schoolers are learning how to use many different kinds of tools. As everyone is getting acclimated to full classrooms and school-year routines a new little friend in Brookline, "Peep the Puppet", is helping children transition from outdoor time to lunch. The children are also actively engaged in Social and Emotional Development, learning to be "Bucket Fillers", a concept from the popular children's book Have You Filled a Bucket Today, by Carol McCloud. A bucket filler is someone who is kind and thoughtful!

VOLUNTEERS

PNC Grow Up Great volunteers continue to support Angels' Place and played a large role in assisting with our Halo Award Dinner. Congratulations to four PNC groups "ORM Angels 2" and "Digital Team 3G", along with groups led by Gayle Williams and Linda Brown, who reached their 100 hours for 2015. Special thanks to PNC Spotlight Recognition Program for donating iPad's to each of our centers. Both PNC volunteers and Seton LaSalle students helped with Brookline's Food Bank delivery.

Special thanks to weekly volunteers Eileen Gelet, Anne Green, Russ Fry, Natalie Cichoski, Joan McElhinny, Renee Ayers, Debbie Finnerty, Dolores Casali, Kathy Beckovich, Megan Grefenstette, Isabelle Shatlock, Dora Zezulewicz, and Patty Kaczmariski, along with the Special Events Committee for all of their help.

ADDITIONAL GRATITUDE

The Christ Light of the World Parish donated household items and necessities for our families. We are fortunate to again be included in the Christ Child Society Coat Program, which gives parents the opportunity to receive free coats, hats and gloves for each child. Saints John & Paul and Restoration Baptist Church performed much needed maintenance work at our Brookline/North Side centers. Kretschmann Organic Farm continues to provide fresh vegetables that allow our nutritional coordinators to create a variety of healthy meals and raise awareness of the value of farm to table fresh food.

Erin Harvey our Family Support Specialist brought back beautiful handmade quilts for all of our children from Three Rivers Quilters Guild after attending their annual event.

Thank you as well to those who participated in our Ten Thousand Villages and Pittsburgh Popcorn fundraisers, both were a huge success.

Additional thanks to the following people who held special collections or made donations: Bridget Kelly and students at St. Bede School, Kathy McCafferty and FedEx Services employees, Hayley Baranowski for collecting Halloween Costumes that provide so much entertainment for the children, National Council of Jewish Women Pittsburgh Section, North American Martyrs Ladies of Charity, St. Bartholomew Ladies of Charity, Mike Baker and Rotork-Hiller employees, Heidi Garth and Color Me Mine employees, Tracy O'Hara from Many Arms Reach You.

All of the above mentioned contributions are instrumental in Angels' Place having the ability to provide the highest quality of service to our parents and children.

STAFF NEWS

Angels' Place is wishing a fond farewell to a student teacher. Ayanna Johnson was a fantastic addition to the Brookline team. She had an immediate impact on the Pre-K students and will be missed. We wish her all the best and hope to continue our relationship with Carlow University.

COMMUNITY PARTNER SPOTLIGHT

The theme of this year's Halo Award Dinner was "Celebrating the Angels Among Us" and that's exactly what we'd like to do for Angels' Place Board of Directors member David Townsend and his wife Patty. To keep the memory of each of their grandmothers alive, David and Patty – for the past six years – have generously donated funding for each Angels' Place center to continue the annual tradition of providing a wonderful Thanksgiving feast for families, friends and staff.

David has actively served on our Board since 2011, in addition to serving on our Finance Committee. He is the founder of D L Townsend Insurance Agency which serves McMurray and the surrounding communities. David and Patty are ambassadors of Angels' Place, always looking for ways to support our program and helping others to know about the services we offer to families.

Patty and David Townsend

For their kindness, we are truly thankful!

AMAZON SMILE

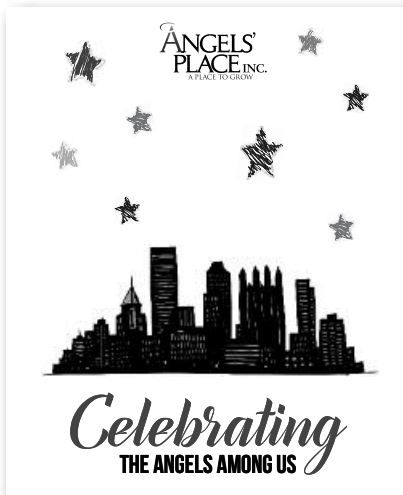

Shop for all of your favorite products and holiday gifts and Amazon will send a portion of the purchase price to Angels' Place.

Visit www.smile.amazon.com and log in with your existing Amazon account (or create a new one). On your first visit you will be prompted to select a charity that you would like to support. Simply type "Angels' Place" in the space bar Or pick your own charitable organization box, click Search and then Select Angels' Place on the next screen...that's it! You will only need to do this once as Amazon will save your selected nonprofit.

It's very important to remember that a portion of your purchase will only support Angels' Place from the Amazon Smile page and NOT the traditional Amazon page, though the very same products are on both. If you don't see the Amazon Smile logo in the top left corner of the screen then your purchase will not support Angels' Place.

HALO AWARD DINNER

THANK YOU to all who joined us at LeMont for our Annual Halo Award Dinner. It was a truly special evening celebrating Joseph & Carol Massaro for their years of dedication to Angels' Place, along with the vital role they continue to play in the lives of children and parents in need. The Massaro Family and Friends joined us in honoring Carol and Joe.

Special thanks to WPXI's Brittany McGraw who served as a wonderful Mistress of Ceremonies, despite her Tar Heels defeating our beloved Pitt Panthers. Guests were entertained by T.J. Hill, renowned magician, who fascinated the crowd with his magic. Beautiful music also set the mood for the evening featuring flutist Katie Miller accompanied by violinist Sarah Klicker. The evening also featured a touching slide show featuring Joe and Carol.

A warm thanks as well to our hardworking Special Events Committee who diligently worked to make this event a success. In addition, we applaud the effort of PNC Grow Up Great volunteers, Angels' Place Board and staff whose time and energy helped to ensure such a fantastic evening. You can find more photos from the evening on our Facebook page.

PARENT SPOTLIGHT

Cyara Powell, better known to us as CiCi, is a recent graduate from the University of Pittsburgh's School of Law and is the mother of twin three year olds, Ceni and DeKhi. She and her children have been Angels' Place Brookline clients for the past two and a half years. CiCi served Angels' Place by acting as the Parent Speaker at our Halo Award Dinner this year. In her speech, she told the audience,

"There were many times that my road seemed weary. However, with faith, love, and the support and dedication of Angles Place, I was able to complete my career goals with excellence even through the struggle. Angels' Place proved to be my crutch and afforded me the opportunity to fully capitalize on my educational experience even as a mother of two. They showed me that I wasn't simply a client to them but a part of their family."

CiCi and her children are indeed part of our family and we have enjoyed watching each of them grow and develop in their unique ways. Ceni is an artist extraordinaire who can almost always be seen with papers and a writing utensil in her hands, drawing and creating. DeKhi has many interests, with music and song being high on the list, as well as reading. Just the other day, he started a sing-a-long on the PAT bus on the way to the Tiny Tots concert. The bus driver shared with the staff how it made her day. Congratulations to the whole family for learning and growing every day.
